Forecast For Strathclyde
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 01 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry and occasionally bright today. However temperatures down from yesterday.

Today:
A fine, dry day ahead with occasional bright or sunny spells. However not feeling particularly mild with temperatures down from yesterday. East to northeast winds occasionally fresh over the coasts and Isles. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Continuing dry with clear skies leading to a slight frost for many come dawn. Winds light and variable in direction. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Friday:
Another settled day with all staying dry and enjoying occasional bright and sunny spells. Winds mostly light and variable but a moderate northerly breeze at times around the west coasts. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Saturday dry and bright. Sunday brings strong to gale winds, a band of rain crossing from north, clearing to showers, these wintry to all levels late Sunday and through Monday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.